Greeting

Opening Prayer

God, give us words to say. Put your hand on our lips and fill our mouths with your words. Where there is injustice, call us to speak. Where there is oppression, let your message flow from our mouths. Where there is hopelessness, fill our speech with words of hope and truth and goodness. We offer ourselves to you. Call out prophetic voices that we might speak your words with confidence. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Jeremiah 1:4-9

Now the word of the LORD came to me saying, "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations." Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy." But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a boy'; for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD." Then the LORD put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the LORD said to me, "Now I have put my words in your mouth.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our Lord thanks and praise.

Almighty God, we bless you for creation and all that you have made, for your gracious covenant with a holy people, and for your steadfast love in sending the prophets to call us to repent and to walk in your ways.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

With thanksgiving we remember your love for the world in sending your Son to live and die as one of us. You put your Spirit upon him. He proclaimed release to the captives, healed the sick, fed the hungry, and ate with sinners.

Before his death on the cross he took bread and said "Eat this bread - it is my body - and remember me." After supper he took the cup and said "Drink this wine - it is my blood - and remember me."

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection, you gave birth to your church and made all things new. And so, in remembrance of your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

By your Holy Spirit make this bread and wine to be for us the body and blood of Christ. So fill us with your love that being one with Christ we may be living reminders of your compassion and justice to all the world.

Make us one with Christ and one with each other until we share his heavenly banquet. Through Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God, now and forever.

Amen.
